

Table Topic Master

Sample Script

*“Good Morning Toastmaster of the Day, fellow Toastmasters and guests!
Table Topics helps members practice the art of improvisation and also helps us think on our feet! This helps us develop four vital communication skills - Listening, Thinking, Organizing and Delivering. The topics that I have prepared for you will hopefully help all of us become better at improvisation. Since we at Toastmasters try and provide a speaking opportunity to maximum audience members, this session is not restricted to members alone. Even the guests can participate! I hope everyone gives this a shot. I may randomly call anyone to participate or you can volunteer to come up on stage yourself by raising your hand. Before we begin, I request the Timer to call out the timing guidelines for the Table Topics Round.
(After the Timer is done providing the guidelines) Thank you, Timer. Okay, let’s begin! Who will be the first volunteer?”*

Helping anxious public speakers move from frantic towards confidence

Thank You!

Hope you have found some value here for your journey
as a public speaker.
